

Please leave Indiana's right to privacy law alone. Telemarking's bothersome calls have been reduced dramatically; thus allowing peaceful, quiet family time without annoying interruptions. This is much better than paying extra for a privacy manager service from our telephone company.

Sincerely,

Robert and Vicki Hartley